#Points of View

Section : English Practise

Topic : Know the Structure of English

Goals : Every student is expected to:

1. Understand the structure of English;
2. Know the function of the English structures;
3. Use the structure of English for communication;
4. Answer questions about the topic.

Discussion:

- English is a language that used to communicate something through written as well as spoken.
- General structures of a language: word (pharase), sentence, paragraph, and text. (English has the equal structures too).
- Word, sentence, paragraph, text are the language structures/langauge components.
- By knowing the structures of language, every students will: 1) able to creat certain meaning, 2) get certain formulation of language, 3) have clear way in communication.
- The structures of English are functioned to: 1) develop a language context, 2) make an effective communication.
